In memoriam of Professor Giuseppe Manuppella

The "Italian Journal of Pure and Applied Mathematics" cannot more take advantage of the precious collaboration of prof. Giuseppe Manuppella, from University of Chieti & Pescara (Abruzzo, Italy), who has passed away, for Mathematics event organization.

The members of Editorial Board express their deep sorrow for this loss.

The Managing Board Chief regrets the loss of Prof. Giuseppe Manuppella. He has been a great man of science and a very dear friend.

All they who knew him will remember always his scientific value and his wonderful human qualities.
